Overland Expo PNW Overland Experience Route to Training Map

- TRAINING AREA: Check your personally selected exclusive schedule for class specific instructions. Staff will be on hand at the Concierge Tent to help you find the locations of your custom driving skills classes (they will be checking credentials—Remember to wear your badge!) NO LANYARD-NO ENTRY! PERIOD!
- DRIVING & SAFETY: Driving within the Training Areas is only permitted during supervised teaching sessions. No driving within these designated spaces after show hours.

- Safety is our primary concern-always drive slowly (10 MPH Limit).
- Give Pedestrians Right of Way in Caution Area.
- Watch for children.
- Never drink & drive.
- WHAT TO BRING TO TRAINING: The training team looks forward to welcoming you to the training area. They request that you bring the following with you to make your experience more enjoyable, safer and to give you the ability to fully participate in the classes.
  - Enclosed toed footwear - driving / hiking style shoes.
  - Work gloves (light weight leather style gloves) if you want to participate hands on in the classes – they do not need to be fancy or expensive, just enough to protect your hands.
  - Hair ties / hair band for those with long hair. We recommend tying your hair back if it is long for safety reasons.
  - Clothing for the weather such as rain jackets / sun hat.
  - Notebook.
  - Camera.
  - Water bottle.
